Opportunity International provides supporters with complimentary and confidential planning expertise to benefit their families and to make a difference in the world.

Donna Allman is a passionate advocate for Opportunity clients in Nicaragua. She and her husband, David, worked with Chuck Day to donate real estate to Opportunity. Donna said, “Chuck helped us achieve our philanthropic goals for the people of Nicaragua.”

Charitable Gift Planning

Discover your passion. Identify your short- and long-term philanthropic objectives. Learn how to achieve them as they apply to Opportunity and other charities and ministries you support.

Maximize your impact. Strategically integrate philanthropic development into your financial planning. Where possible, redirect tax dollars to charitable use. Get advice on making effective outright, life-income and estate gifts. Discover qualifying ways to achieve the greatest possible charitable tax deduction.

Create a legacy. Explore ways to involve children or grandchildren in philanthropy, including family foundations and donor advised funds.

Estate Planning

Identify your unique goals and needs. Review options for meeting the needs of you and your family in simple, practical terms.

Review and analyze your current estate plan. Get recommendations for updating and revising your estate plan to meet goals and objectives. Reduce the time and expense spent in meeting with your private estate planning attorney to draft your documents.

Identify and retain an attorney's services. Get a referral to an experienced and trusted local estate planning attorney if you do not have one.

Chuck Day, Opportunity International's Director of Gift Planning Services, is available to assist you.

Chuck Day is an attorney with over 25 years of legal experience. After spending years in private legal practice, he is now dedicated to working with individuals and families who wish to make a lasting philanthropic impact. Chuck travels the country extensively and would be pleased to arrange a private meeting at your convenience.
